DE MAJO

AUTHENTIC ITALIAN TRADITION

SINCE 1947

DE MAJO is the name of our brand, but most importantly our last name.
What you're about to witness is a real, 75-year-old story.

A visionary man named Guido de Majo, having escaped the atrocities of World War II, finds himself in Venice. Originally from Naples, Guido had a great spirit of adaptability, and a precise vision. In 1947, fascinated by the unique artistic tradition of our Venetian Lagoon, he founded a glass furnace with all the money he had, with the mission of changing Murano glass forever.

In fact, up until that time, only the finest and most ornate lighting pieces were made in Murano glass - Guido wanted to change that. He ramped up production, selecting only the most skilled artisans, and started producing modern Murano glass items - something unheard of.

Having established an entire new market for Murano glass, this gave the opportunity to shift artistic direction towards what we now call Design - which at the time was a "nameless attempt at something entirely new". This worked beautifully throughout the following decades.

Having changed Venetian history forever, Guido left his life's work into the hands of his son, Lucio de Majo.

Lucio had the ambitious will to return to traditions. He was born and bred in the context of glass furnaces. True to his origins, he decides to introduce traditional Venetian chandeliers alongside modern products in the DE MAJO collection. The impeccable level of craftsmanship offered by artisans made it possible, locating DE MAJO among the most prestigious artisanal brands of the Lagoon.

Having built quite a reputation, during the eighties and nineties DE MAJO delivered beautiful lighting pieces in many countries worldwide. This opened yet again another opportunity for DE MAJO, which alongside a "modern" and "traditional" collection, proposed a "bespoke" collection.

Since the start of the XXI century to this day, DE MAJO delivered over 1000 special, tailor made products in over 90 countries worldwide. Nowadays, Lucio's son Francesco de Majo represents the third generation of the de Majo family.

The same exact visionary ambition lives on, never sacrificing quality or attention to details, allowing new exciting chapters to be written about Murano glass.

Be like Guido, Change the world.

Sleek and elegant suspension lamp.

Akemi is a sleek and elegant suspension lamp which features two main hand blown glass components. The milky white body is made out of layers of glass, resulting in a glossy finish - we call this "lattimo". The transparent upper section recalls a traditional Venetian decorative glass technique called "ballotton", which donates some more texture and refinement to the lamp all together. Akemi features CRI 90 LED technology, and lights up in both upward and downward directions, ensuring an evenly spread ambient lighting. Diameter 50cm, Height 42cm.

NOOR PENDANT

Design by Francesco Dei Rossi

A visionary tale of cultural fusion.

Keeping alive traditional Murano glassmaking heritage while aesthetically drifting towards exotic nuances, Noor represents a well balanced conglomerate of different styles which resolves into the craft of unique lighting pieces which boast a strong character - made by masterful artisans in Murano.

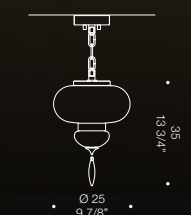

A visionary tale which translates in a collection of opulent lamps and chandeliers, sought after for its effortlessly elegant and sophisticated look. The intertwining of metal patterns with artisanal glass communicates authentic luxury, never sacrificing the importance of light itself, which is the true protagonist of this collection. Each texture is strongly enhanced by the use of light, which almost magically travels along each shape and really carries out a glamorous contrast between materials. Each piece is given the option to be customised as far as metal coatings/treatments and glass colours - this allows further material experimentation and the creation of bespoke and sophisticated pieces.

Glossy, milky white finish.

8020 is a majestic glass working creation characterised by a milky white finish, which results in a glossy, captivating feel. While the decorations are simple, the “rigadin” style arms and body confer a slight sense of classical taste, without sacrificing the modern look to this piece. Highly modular and easily configurable, this chandelier is a great choice when in need of a big lighting piece for a grand hall. The result is a well balanced, proportioned statement piece which looks timelessly contemporary. Dimensions range between a diameter of 180cm and height of 90cm, to a diameter of 200cm and a height of 300cm.

A deconstructed classic.

8080 is often referred to as a deconstructed chandelier. The design fundamentals of the classic Venetian chandelier can be found in this design, however, the linear configuration of this product shows a new concept, which is not only visually pleasant, but very functional in many interiors. This product is available in two main shapes: toroidal or linear. In both cases, the "modularity" of this piece makes it a true asset when in need of a tailored dimension. Available in custom finishes and sizes.

A floral masterpiece.

8089 is a fascinating chandelier with floral designs. One of the peculiarities of this piece is the orientation the arms, blossoming like wild flowers in every direction, which communicates the thriving strength of nature. A perfect centerpiece for big dining halls, as well as hospitality interiors. It features textured arms which Venetians call "rigadin" style. Easily one of the most beautiful and elegant pieces of this collection. Available in several different configurations, finishes and sizes, including a 150cm diameter, 200cm height version.
